ANARCHIST BOMB SENT TO HUSBAND OF FORMER PARIS GIRL

The many friends of Mrs. Chas. Miles McKinlay, of Leona, N. J., who was formerly Miss Martha Ferguson, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Ferguson, of this county, will be interested and thankful for her narrow escape from injury from the hands of an anarchist at her country home in New Jersey.

Following their wedding, which took place at "Arcadia," the country home of their parents in this county, on April 30, last, Dr. McKinlay and his bride spent two weeks of their honeymoon in a trip to various Eastern cities, following which they went to their country home at Leona, N. J., a suburb of New York City. About two weeks ago Mrs. Volney Ferguson, the mother of the bride, sent as a birthday present to her daughter, a handsome "sweet grass" basket of delicate fibre and handsomely made. She wrote a letter to that effect, telling Mrs. McKinlay to be on the lookout for it. Failing to receive the package in due time, Mrs. McKinlay informed her mother of its non-arrival. Mrs. Ferguson wrote again, telling her the contents of the package, that it was very light and fragile, requiring only five cents in postage, and possibly might have been crushed and destroyed in transportation.

Shortly after receiving this letter the package was delivered at the McKinlay residence in Leona. But instead of being light it weighed several pounds, contained twenty-five cents in postage instead of five, and due to the fact that the bomb outrages in the East had occurred only a few days previous, Dr. McKinlay became suspicious and was afraid to open the package. He had it removed to police headquarters, where upon being opened by an expert, it was found to contain, besides the present, a deadly bomb. The matter was placed in the hands of Government authorities, and is being investigated.

Dr. and Mrs. McKinlay are at a loss for a reason which would cause any one to make this attempt on their lives. The only suggestion which has been offered is that before his marriage, Dr. McKinlay was the private physician for a wealthy New York family, the head of which is said, is prominently connected with the Standard Oil Company. The fact that Dr. McKinlay was frequently seen with members of this family may have caused some person with anarchistic tendencies to attempt to wreak his vengeance upon him and his bride.

SOON BE PLENTY OF ICE

Manager Phil Nippert, of the Paris Ice Co., when asked yesterday by THE NEWS as to the reported ice famine in the city, stated that there was no danger of such a thing. He said further: "For some time our plant has been handicapped from the fact that the water in the creek from which we derive our supply has been low and consequently very warm. This has operated against us. It was almost impossible to make plenty of ice from the warm water, but we hung to the job and did all we could. Now, since the heavy rains have caused the creek to rise, and there is plenty of water, the temperature of the water has changed and become cool, so that we will be enabled to furnish our customers with ice, and better ice, than before. We have kept our wagons going under adverse circumstances, but we hope that this is now all past."

BLACKBERRIES ON THE MARKET: SUGAR ON THE RUN

Blackberries, those delicious, juicy morsels that have been the pride of Nicholas county for generations, are coming to the market, but selling at or about $1.00 per bucket, which makes them worth in the vicinity of 8 1-3 cents per quart, and not very big returns at that, the way the dealers serve them out.

Then, after the berries have been secured, there comes the problem of getting the necessary quantity of sugar, a problem that is proving a vexing one for Paris housekeepers. Many grocers are refusing to sell more than a specified amount to each customer. Some of the grocers exhausted their supplies of sugar Tuesday, with none in sight for Wednesday. Other dealers have been taking care of their own customers, with the result that one big retail dealer had no sugar in his house for several days. All the dealers have orders out for sugar, but the wholesalers say they cannot get sugar from the refiners, who, in turn, claim they are far short on the raw material. What the outcome will be cannot be predicted.

K. OF P. TO VISIT PYTHIAN HOME AT LEXINGTON

Rathbone Lodge and the A. J. Lovely Company, Uniform Rank, K. of P., are perfecting arrangements for paying a long-deferred visit to the Pythian Home at Lexington. The Home is now under the management of Col. Robt. L. Slade, well and favorably known here.

The members of the lodges, with their wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts, will go to Lexington on a special car over the Interurban lines on August 10, and will spend the day there as guests of the Home. They will have a musical program and will have a basket lunch on the grounds. The details of the proposed visit are now being worked out by committees representing both organizations.

SEVERE ELECTRICAL AND WIND STORM VISITS BOURBON

Following a period of intense heat, which early gave promise of developing into a storm of some magnitude, this section was visited Wednesday afternoon by a severe storm of electricity, wind, thunder, accompanied by heavy rain, which at times took on the proportions of a flood, and did considerable damage in many sections of the county. The people of Bourbon county may be very thankful that it was no worse.

The storm seemed to come from no particular part of the universe, but the dark clouds gathered, the rains descended, and the elements had a merry war for several hours, during which time many of the substantial ones sought shelter of a substantial kind, and even the hardiest wondered what would happen next. The wind assumed a high velocity at times, forcing the heavy rain ahead of it like bullets from a machine gun, and literally drenching the face of the earth "and everything." Limbs were torn from shade trees and scattered like chaff from a mill. Fences were blown down in many instances, and the lightning played incessantly, accompanied by the deep bass of the growling and roaring thunder, like a veritable Walpurgis night.

During the storm the home of Mr. Robert McFeeney, on the farm of Mr. John T. Redmon, on the Jacks-town pike, near Paris, was struck by lightning and partly demolished. Mrs. McFeeney, who was sitting in the doorway, received the full force of the stroke, and was instantly killed. Coroner Davis was called and summoned a jury, who, after reviewing the facts as presented, rendered a verdict in accordance therewith.

A corner of the Redmon home was torn off by the storm, but no one was hurt. Mr. Redmon went to the assistance of the McFeeney family and everything was done for their comfort.

Jack Turney had just finished topping off a stack of hay on the farm of his father, Mr. Jesse Turney, on the Maysville pike, near Paris, and had descended to the ground, when a flash of lightning struck it, setting it on fire and destroying it entirely. His lucky escape was a matter of but a few seconds.

Mrs. Pearl Deavers, who was sitting on the porch at her home on Fifteenth street, watching the progress of the storm, was stunned by a lightning stroke, which flashed across the porch. She was rendered unconscious remaining in that condition for over an hour and a half, until restored through the ministrations of physicians.

On the Claiborne Stock Farm of Mr. A. B. Hancock, near Paris, lightning struck and killed a valuable brood mare, that had been standing in the field close to one of the barns on the place.

Reports from all parts of the county indicate some kind of damage wrought by the storm, yet, luckily none of a very serious nature. The heavy rains swelled the branches and creeks and made them into little rivers, which poured into Stoner and Houston creeks, rapidly converted those streams into rivers of muddy waters. Floating debris of all kinds covered the streams. Reports from several sources in the county stated that the storm had badly washed out growing crops, especially tobacco. Among the latter was the crop on the Turney place being raised.

In the city the damage was not very severe, being confined mainly to broken limbs of trees and the flood of water that poured through the streets, in some instances overrunning into cellars. Window panes were broken by the force of the wind, but no serious damage has yet been reported.

Lightning flashes set fire to a number of trees in a woods on the Clintonville pike, burning all the foliage and badly charring the trunks of the trees. Men with axes were set to work chopping the trees down in order to prevent other trees from catching fire.

Mr. William Grannan had a narrow escape during the storm. The members of the family had been sitting in the reception hall, and discussion of the lightning caused one of the ladies of the party to become uneasy. They moved into a rear room, and Mr. Grannan started from the hall to the room to soothe them. Just as he left the hall a lightning bolt struck the house, loosening all the plastering on the hall ceiling, which plunged down below with a crash to the very spot he had just vacated.

The funeral of Mrs. McFeeney, victim of the storm's fury, will be held in the Paris Cemetery this (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church. She leaves a husband and eight children.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Craven, who made a motor trip to Cincinnati, Wednesday, were caught in the storm Wednesday night on the return trip, and did not get home until eight o'clock yesterday morning. They left Cincinnati late in the afternoon, and ran into the storm when it was at its worst just as they approached the village of Claysville, in Harrison county. The combined effects of the lightning, thunder, wind and the heavy rain caused them to lose their way, and for several hours they held on, by sheer good luck arriving at Paris at a late hour yesterday morning. They reported the storm as being something terrifying and calculated to upset the stoutest nerve.

PRESIDENT WILSON RETURNS AFTER FOUR MONTHS ABROAD

President Wilson returned to Washington at midnight Sunday after an absence of four months at the Paris peace conference. He was accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, Miss Margaret Wilson and by Vice President Marshall, and most of the members of his cabinet, who greeted him on his arrival at New York.

The Presidential party was greeted at the station by a crowd of several thousand persons who had waited for several hours. After brief welcoming ceremonies, the President and Mrs. Wilson drove directly to the White House.

When the President returns to his desk he will face what probably will prove his busiest week in the White House. A vast accumulation of important matters awaits his consideration.

The President will deal with the subjects before him with as great speed as possible, in order that he may make an early start on his speech making trip. It has been indicated that he would like to leave Washington about the middle of next week.

Among matters awaiting the President's immediate attention are bills passed recently by Congress which carry appropriations of more than two billion dollars.

It was understood that the President hoped to confer with members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and leading administration officials.

Acting Secretary Polk probably will be among the first to confer with the President. Among other matters Mr. Polk will discuss with Mr. Wilson the proposal that he go to Paris to take the place of Secretary Lansing at the Peace Conference.

The itinerary for the President's "swing around the circle" is still unsettled, and probably will remain so until after Mr. Wilson goes before the Senate to present the peace treaty.

FORMER PARIS BOY IN 'FURNITURE PHIZZES' CARTOON

THE NEWS is in receipt of a recent copy of the Grand Rapids, Mich., Daily Herald, in which appears a cartoon representing D. Clyde McNamara, formerly of Paris, as explaining the mysteries of the furniture business. Dennis is depicted standing in a characteristic McNamara attitude as he tells of the good business the Pittsford Varnish Co. is having, and stating how much the good business is due to his personal efforts. One corner of the cartoon represents two traveling men running with the speed of lightning, while one of them exclaims, "Take down the lighting fixtures, here comes McNamara!"

NO FURTHER NEWS FROM IMPERSONATOR OF JAMES CAIN

The case of the unknown in New London, Conn., who recently attempted to extort the sum of $20 from Mr. John Peter Cain, of this city, by impersonating his son, James Cain, officially reported as dead, remains in statu quo, with no new developments.

The identity of the young man remains still unsolved, though the matter being now in the hands of the Government, something is sure to be done. A few days ago Mr. Cain was asked if he would prosecute the man, if called upon to do so. He replied that he certainly would. A message from the office at New London stated that the commanding officer of the garrison to which the young man belonged, had stated that the man would be tried by court-martial and severely punished.

In an effort to help clear up the mystery Mr. John F. Davis, of Paris, wired the Red Cross officials at New London, Conn., asking them to make a thorough investigation of the matter and make him a report. In reply a few days after he received the following telegram:

"New London, Conn.
"John F. Davis, Red Cross, Paris, Ky.
"Supposed James Cain's real name is Stevens. Police holding him for military authorities."

"RUTH M. MORRIS,
"Home Service A. R. C."

The authorities are working on clues which are said to point very strongly to a former Paris man as being the guilty party. He entered the army, deserted from the service, then enlisted again. He was commissioned to search for the deserter and instituted a search for himself. It is stated. He has served a term in the Frankfort Reformatory and the State Reform School.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE IN NEW QUARTERS

Through the generosity of the officials of the Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Co., the Home Service office of the local Red Cross has been located in the room at the corner of Main and Broadway during the war. Now that the room has been leased to the Paris Water Company, the headquarters of the Home Service have been moved to Room No. 505, in the First National Bank building.

The young women in charge of the Home Service department of the Red Cross work may be found in the new headquarters every afternoon, ready and willing to render any assistance in their power to returned soldiers with arrears of pay still due them, or to those who have not received their bonus checks. The work of converting War Risk Insurance has just begun, and applications for compensation are being sent in. The Home Service Committee is dedicated to the task of finishing left-over work, and will not rest until their work has been completed.

"TROUBLES OF A MERCHANT, AND HOW TO STOP THEM."

The three-reel feature film, "Troubles of a Merchant, and How to Stop Them," will be presented for the first time in Paris on Wednesday night, July 16, at 8 o'clock, in the Alamo Theatre. In connection with a film, a lecture on retail merchandising will be given. All merchants and salespeople in the city are invited to attend. No charge will be made for admission.

The merchants and business men of Paris, have secured the film and merchandising lecture through the courtesy of The National Cash Register Company, Dayton, Ohio. R. H. Kennedy, expert lecturer of the Dayton Company, will be the speaker.

R. H. KENNEDY, LECTURER.

The lecture has been given before commercial organizations and conventions throughout the country, and has been highly commended. Causes for losses and failures in retail business are shown, and their remedy told in the lecture, which has been prepared from the experience of The National Cash Register Company in its thirty-four years of dealing with merchants in all parts of the world.

A prominent place in the lecture is given to the value of newspaper advertising. By means of stereopticon slides, Mr. Kennedy will tell how to prepare newspaper copy, how to secure best results, and why a merchant should advertise continually. Window display, efficiency of clerks, selling methods, credit business, delivery problems, and other topics of interest to merchants, will also be discussed.

The film tells in a vivid manner the story of Mr. White, a merchant who is near failure. As the film progresses, the reasons for his lack of success become plain. Poor arrangement of goods, an unattractive front, lax business methods, and most of all, out-of-date business methods, all contributed their quota of loss.

Finally a change comes in the career of Mr. White. He cleans up his store, installs a modern system, and rapidly rises to success. The film is declared to have a business lesson in every sense.

Many merchants and salespeople in this city are expected to welcome the opportunity offered by this lecture, and a large attendance is looked for Wednesday night.

NEW DEAL POSSIBLE

THE NEWS learned yesterday from what is considered a reliable source that the coming of the Redpath Chautauqua to Paris next year is among the possibilities. It was stated by a business man of good standing that enough pledges had been secured to guarantee the appearance here of this superior attraction. The White & Myers Chautauqua System, which has furnished the attractions for Paris in the past three years, has been satisfactory, but there seems to be a desire on the part of many of our citizens for a change, and the guarantees already obtained will be amply sufficient to bring this about.

FARM SOLD

The farm of 35½ acres on the Bethlehem pike, known as the Wm. Farris place, has been sold to Mr. Hugh French, of Lexington, at a price said to be in the neighborhood of $16,000. The sale was made by Mr. Charles P. Mann, representing the Paris Realty Company.

JOHN FOX, JR., NOVELIST, DEAD AFTER ILLNESS OF PNEUMONIA

Mr. John Fox, Jr., a native of Bourbon county, and noted as a popular novelist, died at a hospital in Knoxville, Tenn., Tuesday night, after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Fox was in Norton, Virginia, when he was taken ill, pneumonia developing, and he was sent to the Knoxville hospital, where his death followed Tuesday night.

Telegrams announcing the event were sent to Paris friends Wednesday morning, and the news also became known through the receipt of telegrams in Lexington, where his brother, Mr. Everett Fox, has been residing. Until he became ill Mr. Fox had been actively at work gathering material for a new novel. He spent a part of the winter in the South, returning to his home in Virginia a few months ago. There he had been spending most of his time with his mother, sisters and two brothers, with the exception of a few weeks when he visited in New York and other Eastern cities.

Mr. Fox was born near Stony Point, in this county, in 1863. He was the son of the late Prof. John Fox, who conducted a private school in Paris for several years, and who was regarded as one of the county's foremost educators. He received the rudiments of education at his father's school in this city and entered Transylvania University at Lexington, where he completed his education.

About twenty years ago Mr. Fox attained marked distinction as a writer and as a novelist. His first work to gain public recognition was a short story, "A Mountain Epitaph," which ran serially in Scribner's Magazine. Then follow other works, which, upon appearing, were read widely by a public interested in the people of Eastern Kentucky, whom he described as primitive in a sense, yet of a fineness of stock and origin not to remain undiscovered. Those which gained him a host of readers and noted as an author were "The Heart of the Hill," "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come," "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," "Crittenden," "Christmas on Lonesome," "Following the Sun Flag," "Bluegrass and Rhododendron," "A Knight of the Cumberland," "Hell-Fer-Sartin" and "A Cumberland Vendetta." Mr. Fox also gained distinction during the Russo-Japanese War, when he was sent to the Old World as a special correspondent for The New York World, Collier's Weekly, and a number of other publications.

Mr. Fox is survived by his mother, Mrs. John Fox, Sr., of Big Stone Gap, Va., and two sisters, Miss Minnie Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va., and Mrs. Cabell Moore, of Washington, D. C. Five brothers, Everett Fox, of Lexington; Horace and Oliver Fox, of Big Stone Gap, Va.; Richard Fox, of Chicago; and Rector Fox, of New York. Besides these he is survived by several distant relatives residing in different parts of the Bluegrass section of Kentucky, one of whom, Mrs. J. D. Burnaugh, a former resident of Paris, now lives in Lexington.

During the Spanish-American War, Mr. Fox went to Cuba as a war correspondent for one of the big New York magazines and performed notable service in this field of activity.

Mr. Fox was married about 15 years ago to Fritz Scheff, actress and noted singer, but was divorced from her a few years later.

He was a beneficiary of the Garth Fund, founded by Wm. Garth for the education of poor, but worthy young men of Bourbon county, and who lost his life in the sinking of the ship Lady Elgin in Lake Erie about fifty years ago. In an interview with Mr. Fox in Paris, at the time of the death of his father, he expressed surprise that the large number of prominent men of Paris who had received their education through the generosity of Mr. Garth had not erected a monument on the lawn of the Bourbon county court house to his memory. He volunteered to head a fund for that purpose.

The body was brought to Paris this morning in a special car attached to the early Louisville & Nashville train, and was taken to the home of Miss Simms, on Mt. Airy avenue. The body was accompanied from Big Stone Gap, Va., by relatives and by Undertaker Wm. O. Hinton, of Paris.

The funeral will be held from the residence of Miss Lucy Simms, services being held at the grave in the Paris Cemetery at five o'clock this (Friday) afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church. The pall-bearers will be Claude M. Thomas, Judge H. Clay Howard, William E. Simms, Charles H. Berryman, Upshar Berryman and Edward Bassett.

WHEAT CROP SAID TO BE SOMEWHAT DISAPPOINTING

A prominent Bourbon county farmer stated yesterday that it was his opinion that the wheat crop in this county would prove very disappointing, and that he had heard that some of the threshermen are preparing to store their machines and quit work. They declare that there is not enough grain in the wheat to repay them for their labor. Bourbon county farmers raised more wheat this season than ever before and the yield promised to be the largest in the history of the county. This is considered the best wheat section in the State. The condition of the crop is due mainly to the severely wet month of May, it is thought by the growers.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

This Year's Sweet Girl Graduate.

The "sweet girl graduates" in the June that has just ended were just as sweet as the girl of other years. As they tripped gracefully to the footlights and related the old, old story about Italy lying beyond the Alps they were just as easy to look upon as were the girls of the years gone by.

There were perhaps not so many frills in the dresses as we were once wont to see. And there was a certain uniformity about the costumes that added to rather than detracted from the beauty and poetry of the occasion. There was not the contrast of yore—when some rich man's daughter outshone in gorgeousness of apparel her rivals, or some poor man's pocket book was strained well nigh to the breaking point that his daughter might appear to as great advantage as Dives daughter.

Then the flowers were not so lavish in the June of 1919 as they were a decade ago. A girl graduate without flowers would be somewhat akin to Hamlet without the melancholy Dane—so there were flowers, too, just enough to harmonize with the spirit of the occasion, and not too many in one girl's arm and too few in another's to cause either regret or elation.

The Modern Way.

The United States Chamber of Commerce will build a large and permanent home in Washington. The institution has made its place in the Capital, where it has come to be recognized as the mouthpiece for the commerce of the country. Many years ago the American Federation of Labor established permanent headquarters in the Capital, and the affairs of labor have been very ably handled by it. In the old days we had an "insidious lobby" system, and the gum-shoe artists of the country voyaged to the seat of Government and put their schemes across. The modern way is for business and industry, as represented through the Chamber of Commerce to meet such organized movements as the Federation of Labor, in order that the different elements may be better able to lay their cases before the Government, so that the latter, with a clear understanding of conditions may arrive at conclusions that supposedly are to be the best interests of the whole people.

Statesmanship is winning the day—for statesmanship is business. It is the most practical thing in the world. And the modern way helps it to be more successful than it has ever been before.

They Look Bad.

When the gutters are strewn with refuse.

When empty bottles decorate the dark corners, that looks bad—also suspicious.

When papers blow over the town indicating thoughtlessness and lack of care.

When you see broken glass under foot—bad and dangerous.

When you see kitchen garbage dumped in the back yard or tossed over the fence—looks bad and it smells worse.

When you see a back yard littered with the accumulations of months and of years, it looks more than bad.

When you see a front yard down at the heels and going to seed, you wonder—but we'll let you finish the sentence.

Just how bad or we, anyway?

They Look Good.

Paved streets kept clean and in repair.

Business houses and residences neatly painted.

Roads graded and no "duck ponds" allowed to form.

Front yards with concrete walks, flower beds, and vacant lots seeded and frequently mowed.

Back yards so clean they compel admiration.

School yards sanitary and with adequate playgrounds for children.

Store windows with neat displays of goods and a spirit of thrift in evidence.

Churches well filled on Sundays. No street corner loafers and bums.

A strong spirit of civic pride. Everybody hustling for himself and boosting for Paris.

These are good signs—push 'em along.

RATS AND MICE EXTERMINATED.

Rats and mice, enemies of mankind everywhere, and one of the most potent agencies of destruction anywhere, have been banished from the orphanage at Oxford, N. C.

This spring they appeared in vast numbers—little brown mice and big gray rats. They gnawed their way into cupboards, and were playing havoc with the grain in the barn. Traps they avoided, and the usual poisons they spurned.

It was just about this time that a War Savings Society was organized in the orphanage, but not a vast number of Thrift Stamps were bought, because the inmates were not burdened with an overplus of money.

But the superintendent had an idea. He had two ideas. He wanted to get rid of the pests and he wanted his charges to acquire habits of thrift. Therefore he declared war on the vermin.

For every casualty in ratdom or mousedom he offered a bounty of one cent per head. And the little boys got busy and the little girls overcame their aversion for the pestiferous rodents, and a war of extermination was declared.

Now the orphanage at Oxford is freed of the pests, and the little boys and girls are all creditors of Uncle Sam and are piling up a savings account that will help to make them useful men and women when they depart from the orphanage to take their places in the work-a-day world.

LOSS OF APPETITE.

As a general rule there is nothing serious about a loss of appetite, and if you skip a meal or only eat two meals a day for a few days you will soon have a relish for your meals when meal time comes. Bear in mind that at least five hours should always elapse between meals, so as to give the food ample time to digest and the stomach a period of rest before a second meal is taken. Then if you eat no more than you crave and take a reasonable amount of outdoor exercise every day you will not need to worry about your appetite. When the loss of appetite is caused by constipation, as is often the case, that should be corrected at once. A dose of Chamberlain's Tablets will do it. (July-adv)

Lucky Youth.

A boy was up before an English magistrate for stealing gooseberries. The clerk was absent, so the magistrate had to look in an alphabetical law book to see what he ought to do. Presently he turned to the boy and said: "My lad, it's lucky for you it's gooseberries, and not a goose. For a goose it's a month without the option, but—I can't find any reference to gooseberries. You are discharged."

FINANCE IN TIMES OF PEACE.

The end of the war finds the United States a creditor nation to most of the nations of the world, and economists deeply concerned as to insuring the funding of these debts so as to give us the prosperity to which the conditions entitles us.

It is agreed that the nations which owe us must be highly prosperous in order for us to be prosperous.

This was exemplified during the war by our commercial relations with Spain, where our dollar was worth only about fifty cents, because shipping conditions prevented adjustment of trade balances.

Sentiment figured largely in proposals advanced for our participation in the rehabilitation of France, suggestions have even been made that we cancel France's entire debt to us. One of the latter proposals is that we divert all the interest payments on our Allies debts to us to a "rehabilitation fund."

Why should not the "average man" create a financial rehabilitation fund for himself? The man of ordinary income will be amazed at the improvement he can make in his condition by systematic disposition of his salary or wage.

A few dollars saved first out of every pay envelope will soon amass a fund which may, through making it possible to seize upon the opportunity that awaits every man, revolutionize a lifetime.

The first requisite is to save regularly, the second to invest securely at good interest. The Government has undertaken to underwrite your efforts by offering you War Savings Stamps for investment. They are safe, and are always redeemable at more than the cost. You receive four percent if emergency demands that you cash them before maturity.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT.

Fanniebell Sutherland - Plaintiff.

Vs.—Notice of Sale.

Arthur Stevens Hutchcraft Defendant

Pursuant to judgment and order of sale in the above styled action in the Bourbon Circuit Court, made at its June, 1919, term, the undersigned Master Commissioner will, on about 11 a. m., at the Court House door, Paris, Kentucky, expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder, a house and lot located on Main street, Paris, Kentucky, and described as follows:

Lots 15 and 16 on the west side of Main street, in said City of Paris, Kentucky, fronting on Main street 132 feet and 8 inches, and running back the same width as in front 214½ feet, to High street, bounded in front by Main street, in the rear by High street, on the S. W. by Lynn street, and on the N. E. by lot No. 17, belonging to the widow Ingels (now the property of Mrs. Rachel Quisenberry) and is the same property conveyed to Charles S. Hanson by Sidney Clay by deed recorded in Deed Book 54, page 232, office of the Clerk of the Bourbon County Court; less a parcel of land conveyed by first parties to Mrs. Carrie Hanson Thomas, afterwards owned by Mrs. Sidney Clay and now owned by the Catholic School, fronting on Main street 65 feet and running back the same width to High street, and being the portion of above described lands adjacent to Lynn street.

The property hereby conveyed is all of the above described lots Nos. 15 and 16, after deducting the portion thereof conveyed to the said Carrie Hanson Thomas, afterwards owned by Mrs. Sidney Clay and now owned by the Catholic School. The remainder consists of a lot about 67 feet and 8 inches fronting on Main street and extending back the same width to High street about 214½ feet, adjoining the home place of Mrs. Rachel Quisenberry on the north side, and the home of Mrs. May Stoner Clay (now Catholic School) on the South, and having thereon a two-story brick dwelling house and other improvements.

TERMS—Said property will be sold upon credits of six and twelve months for equal parts of the purchase money, the purchaser to execute bonds with good surety, to be approved by the Master.

A Coated Tongue? What it Means

A bad breath, coated tongue, bad taste in the mouth, languor and debility, are usually signs that the liver is out of order.

Prof. HEM-METER says: "The liver is an organ secondary in importance only to the heart."

We can manufacture poisons within our own bodies which are as deadly as a snake's venom.

The liver acts as a guard over our well-being, sifting out the cinders and ashes from the general circulation.

A blockade in the intestines piles a heavy burden upon the liver. If the intestines are choked or clogged up, the circulation of the blood becomes poisoned and the system becomes loaded with toxic waste, and we suffer from headache, yellow-coated tongue, bad taste in mouth, nausea, or gas, acid dyspepsia, languor, debility, yellow skin or eyes. At such times one should take castor oil or a pleasant laxative. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe and jalap, put into ready-to-use form by Doctor Pierce, nearly fifty years ago, and sold for 25 cents by all druggists as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

WHEAT IS HARVESTED BY ELECTRIC LIGHT IN MASON.

PSYCHOLOGY OF INFLUENZA

A physician writes to the continental edition of the London Times to know whether the medical profession have been discussing influenza and have disagreed, as usual, regarding treatment and prevention.

Not unnaturally the public is feeling bewildered. It is almost inclined to wonder whether the medical profession knows anything at all about influenza. Perhaps the great ones of the medical profession don't. But the general practitioner does. He—if he is of any use—realizes that, though he cannot treat the disease, he can treat the patient.

How does he do it? His methods are quite simple. He bucks the patient up. Either he makes the patient laugh or he makes him very cross. It doesn't matter which. The result is the same.

In either case the patient is provided with something fresh to think about. Either he talks about the doctor's affability or he grows about the doctor's brutality, and threatens to "report him." Then he goes to sleep and wakes refreshed.

Influenza is really a most innocuous affair. The percentage of persons affected who develop serious symptoms is ridiculously small, and the percentage would be smaller still if there were more general sanity knocking around.

Here is a truly scientific exposition of what happens. There are certain germs waiting about with their tails up, seeking victims. No. 1 germ provides headache, and the pains all over. No. 2 germ hands out the pneumonia which kills.

Neither germ has much chance with the person who is not prepared to welcome him. If you are fit, the germ—he has a nice long name—will drop his tail and let you pass by unscathed; but if you are not fit—and particularly if you let the germ know you are afraid of him—he will go for you.

THE MORNING FACE.

The morning face has been much written of by writers past and present, and human nature undergoing no volcanic upheavals, will be by writers to come. It has been much talked of by wives, and always will be much talked of by wives.

It is made up of grouch, bile, torpid liver, cigars smoked late at night, not enough sleep or too much and a few other inconsequential poisons like those. Husbands take this morning face out of bed of mornings and carry it to the breakfast table. After it has sufficiently soured the wife and the children then carry it to the street cars and there display it in all its beautiful simplicity for the edification of cheery street car conductors, who have nothing to do except arise at 3 o'clock in the morning and work twelve to fourteen hours a day. To the greetings of acquaintances on the car the morning face opens and shuts with the pleasurable vim of a rat trap. "Arrump," it remarks intelligibly, "whazzat? Fine day, th' devil. Never gonna rain."

By the time it reaches the workshop and has a cigar in its teeth, the morning face is ready to be agreeable, if it is an inferior. If it is a superior, a boss, oftentimes it continues for quite a while to be as sweet as the schoolgirl's favorite refreshment.

The morning face is familiar to most men. It furnishes most men great amusement when observed upon the other fellow. Alas, however, Robert Burns had it right; men don't carry pocket mirrors.

AMERICANS TO HELP REBUILD FRANCE.

A big New York corporation has just signed a contract for the rebuilding of the Nancy district of France, the tentative figures being $250,000,000, while the final figures may exceed $500,000,000 before the task is completed. The work undertaken involves the reconstruction or repair, of public buildings, factories, dwellings, roads, bridges, churches, and all other structures destroyed by the German invaders.

The enormous amount of this proposed expenditure for the repairing, to such a limited extent as may now be possible, of the destruction wrought by the Huns in a single small section of France, indicates the utter inadequacy of even the largest sum ($250,000,000,000) which has been mentioned as the total of the reparations to be eventually demanded by allied countries from Germany. Germany has made a loud protest to the effect that she "cannot pay," but the cold, unanswerable fact is that France alone—leaving the huge war damages and costs to the United States, Great Britain, Italy and other Allied countries entirely out of the account—has already been compelled by Germany to pay in physical war damages and costs, alone, even aside from her terrible and irreplaceable loss of manhood, far more than the total amount likely to be required from Germany for all her war crimes. As a matter of fact, Germany is able and should be made to pay in full, at least to France and Belgium, for every dollar's worth of destruction that she wrought in her horrible war for world domination.

BLACK IS A WINNER

It is generally conceded that Governor James D. Black will be an easy winner of the democratic nomination for Governor in the August Primary.

The people are for him.

He is the logical candidate. His great service to the ticket in 1915 should not go unrewarded.

He is 10000 votes stronger than any other candidate.

In 1915 he reduced the republican majority in 35 counties in Eastern Kentucky, nearly 5000 votes.

His majority over his opponent was from 4000 to 8000 more than the majority of the other members of the ticket over their respective opponents.

He is the best campaigner, the best debator, the most pleasing speaker, by far, of any candidate offering for Governor on the democratic ticket.

In him, Democracy has an invincible champion.

He's a Winner—Vote For Him and Democratic Success in November!

Copper of the Ancients.

Metallurgists who have examined specimens of the so-called hardened copper of the ancients have found not pure copper, but usually an alloy, either natural—that is, the two metals existed in one ore so that in reduction an alloy was formed—or an artificial alloy made by melting the two ores together, the one copper, the other zinc.

SIMON'S CHANGE-IN-BUSINESS SALE!

Our Entire Stock of Ready-to-Wear and Dry Goods
Sacrificed For Immediate Clearance

A Message to My Friends and Patrons

IN order to be relieved of some of the cares which the personal attention to my stores in Paris and Lexington have imposed upon me, I have sold an interest in my Paris store to MR. R. GOLDSTEIN, of Cincinnati, who assumed management of the Paris store on July 1st.

It is my wish to dispose of as much of my stock as possible before making invoice. In order to accomplish this desire, I have decided to sacrifice every article in my stock regardless of former cost or present value.

Much of this merchandise was bought long before the present high prices, so those of you who attend this sale may expect some rare bargains.

HARRY SIMON.

Sale Starts Thursday, July 17

This sale will go down in the record of local merchandising as the greatest values ever offered a buying public. It will offer you a golden opportunity to save tremendously. Coming as it does at the height of the buying season, it is your opportunity to clothe yourself for many months to come at savings so great as to astonish you. You cannot afford to pass by this great Change-in-Business Sale without heeding.

You owe it to yourself, you owe it to your family, you owe it to us, who have made this opportunity possible, to attend this the most magnificent money-saving event ever known in the annals of local merchandising.

So come, and we promise that if you are a judge of merchandise the values we offer will gladden your heart and prompt you to purchase.

LONE PRISONER TAKEN TO FRANKFORT REFORMATORY

One lone man, the only offender given a penitentiary sentence at the June term of Bourbon Circuit Court, is now behind the gates of that institution. The prisoner, James Smith, convicted on a charge of burglary, was taken in an automobile to Frankfort in charge of Deputy Sheriff Ollie Marshall, Patrolman Judy and J. M. Sturgeon. Smith drew a term of two years.

SALE OF EDIBLES

Don't forget that the ladies of the Paris Christian church will have their usual Saturday sale of edibles, cakes, pies, and all other good things that have escaped from the culinary paradises of the makers. The sale will be held in the Wilson building at the corner of Main and Third streets. The ladies are using the proceeds of the sale in helping to pay for the redecoration of the church. Help them with your patronage.

CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER SELECTED.

Mr. A. Boener, of Louisville, was selected as civil engineer to superintend the construction of the new streets in Paris, at a recent meeting of the Improvement Committee, one of the members being absent. Bids will be advertised and opened on July 28 for the reconstruction of the following streets in the city: Main street, from Tenth to Fourteenth; High street, from the City Hall to Fourteenth street; Pleasant street, from Second street to Twelfth street and the intersecting streets, from Second street to Fourteenth.

WALK UP TO THE CAPTAIN'S DESK AND TELL 'EM WHY!

The City Board of Tax Supervisors is in session for the purpose of hearing the people of Paris on the question of their tax assessment and equalization. Summons were served yesterday by Chief of Police Link on property-owners notifying them to appear before the Board. Under the law passed at the recent session of the State Legislature the tax assessment on all city real estate has been raised eighty per cent. and the owners are to be given a chance to appear before the Board and show cause why they should not be so taxed.

FATHER DEMANDS INVESTIGATION INTO DEATH OF SON.

A thorough investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of his son, Jos. W. Murray, overseas soldier, found drowned in the bathing pool in the Covington Y. M. C. A., has been demanded by his father, Mr. Thos. J. Murray, formerly of Paris. Mr. Murray is not entirely satisfied with the supposition that his son struck his head against the side or the bottom of the pool when he dived into the water.

Mr. Murray makes no charges, but explained that he merely wanted a judicial inquiry made, as he thought there might have been foul play in some manner. Coroner Stephens, of Covington, stated that none of the Y. M. C. A. officials could throw any light on the affair, as they could not inform him definitely when young Murray went into the pool, there being no one present at the time. How long his body was in the water, the Coroner stated no one could say. Young Murray was well-known here, having been a frequent visitor at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Brannon, and others.

Mr. Murray and the Coroner could not account for the bruises found on the boy's body, and a thorough and searching investigation will be made.

THE FAIR

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

How often have we heard that time-honored expression quoted, and how very true it is? It has been proven to the satisfaction of the editor of THE NEWS. He advertised in THE NEWS recently the loss of a pocket-knife that had been a close companion for many years. A brother editor, reading the advertisement, found the knife on his desk where THE NEWS man had left it some time before. He is now more than ever a firm believer in the efficacy of judicious advertising, and especially in the value of THE NEWS as an advertising medium.

A lady residing on Pleasant street desired to sell a nice baby buggy. She had a small ad inserted in THE NEWS, and before the sun had set on the following day the buggy had been sold to a purchaser who read the ad in THE NEWS. She is convinced that it pays to advertise.

A Walker avenue housekeeper lost a handsome brooch, an heirloom, and advertised the loss through the columns of THE NEWS. It brought results—and the brooch—the next day. Nearly everyone reads THE NEWS.

A Maysville man touring through Paris lost a wallet containing a sum of money, and some valuable papers. A Paris man was on his way to work early one morning recently found the book, with its contents intact, lying in the gutter where it had been swept in a pile of refuse by the street cleaning department. He advertised it in THE NEWS—and the owner found it. But we could go on, like the brooch, forever, but space forbids. Advertise in THE NEWS and get results.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

Consideration of the contemplated extensions and improvements in our service, which we have in mind has resulted in a slight delay in getting out our July bills.

In order that we may be enabled to carry through these plans with all possible dispatch it is necessary that our customers for their part give prompt attention to the payment of their accounts, which will be rendered within a few days.

We wish particularly to call attention to delinquent accounts, which we hardly feel justified in carrying further.

It is our firm belief that with the co-operation of the public we can develop a service which will be a decided improvement even over that which we have heretofore been able to furnish.

IT'S NOT YOUR HEART IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ill-afflicted people today can be traced back to kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers, of your blood.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals to warn you that the kidneys need help. You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately.

The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation and destroys the germs which have caused it. Do not wait until tomorrow. Go to your druggist today and insist on GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. In twenty-four hours you should feel health and vigor returning and will bless the day you first heard of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil.

After you feel that you have cured yourself, continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep in first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three sizes. Money refunded if they do not help you.

HERE'S THE GREATEST ARMY STORY EVER TOLD!

The following description, copied from a letter found near a Southern Railway station and apparently written by a member of the Air Service at Scott Field, in Illinois, to his father, causes us to wonder if the imaginative author of Gulliver's Travels has come back to earth reincarnated in the form of a young American soldier.

"I have been appointed mess sergeant of the Flying Detachment, Scott Field, and to show you what I do I will give you a few examples of our work and efficiency.

"1. The kitchen range is 500 feet wide and 3,000 feet long, takes 27 experienced firemen to keep the heat at the necessary temperature, 400 cooks on duty all the time, 1,000 mechanical stokers for kitchen police, and 1,000 assistant kitchen police who look after the stokers.

"2. Two hundred washing machines used for washing the potatoes, 27 pile drivers used to smash them, 14 steam shovels used to shovel eggshells away from the kitchen door. Twenty-two Liberty motors are used in the coffee mills. Dirty dishes are hauled out to 11 furnaces, as all the dishes are paper and are burned after each meal. Hot cakes are mixed with 19 concrete mixers, and 46 men with bacon rinds attached to their feet continually skate over the large griddle to keep it greased. Soup is made in an artificial lake, keeping 34 dump trucks busy hauling the necessary ingredients. Cooks use steel boats and are dressed in asbestos clothing, and every few minutes row to the center of the soup lake and drop depth bombs to stir the soup properly; 67 fire engines are used to pump the soup on the tables. Bread is cut with 11 high-power band saws.

A perforated endless conveyor belt is used to properly salt and pepper the victuals; 20 large street sprinklers are used to place syrup on the cakes. Coffee is made in a 600-gallon tank and pumped to the several tables through pipes. Six-inch mains are installed from 20 of the biggest dairies in the country for the supplying of milk. Radio telephones are used for the transmission of orders to the cooks by myself, the mess sergeant. I also use a motor cycle in traveling round the dining hall and kitchen. All cooks wear gas masks at all times. Small trucks are used to carry the silverware.

"Now, dear father, you can form an idea of just what I have to do and why I do not desire to quit the army."

SUMMER COMPLAINT QUICKLY RELIEVED.

"About two years ago when suffering from a severe attack of summer complaint, I took Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved me almost instantly," writes Mrs. Henry Jewett, Clark Mills, N. Y. This is an excellent remedy for colic and diarrhoea, and should be kept at hand by every family. (July-adv)

A FRENCH CHILD THANKS AMERICA.

It was a grey-blue envelope with the French postmark—off of many such which come to a group of warm-hearted American men and women who have constituted themselves godfathers and godmothers to the little French children made fatherless by the war—and this is the message it held, written laboriously by Felix Gaizdire to his "godmother" in America:

"I read your letter again and again while watching my cows. Jeanne d'Arc, who was only a shepherd girl, once saved our fair France. Now it is our brothers—the brave soldiers of America—who came to fight by the side of ours. Dear benefactor, I watch my cattle. Already I am brave, and in autumn I shall go to school again."

"Already I am brave!" And only a few brief months ago this little lad was homeless, shuddering away from the sight of carnage, crushed into destitution by the merciless foes of his country. A little help, some cherishing words in a letter written by an American woman, and the bruised life was healed again.

There are thousands and thousands of such little children in France. Through the activities of an American organization, "The Fatherless Children of France," many of these perishing little folks, like Felix Gaizdire, were "adopted" by warm-hearted Americans between the autumn of 1917 and the signing of the armistice—an adoption which meant only the writing of friendly letters from time to time and the furnishing of ten cents a day to help in the child's support at home in France with those of his own kin. But thousands more of these children must be granted a chance for life, must be saved for the future of the world—must have help given to them until they too can say: "Already I am brave. And in the autumn I shall go to school again."

A special campaign, with Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, of Chicago, as chairman, is being undertaken by "The Fatherless Children of France," Room 635, 410 S. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, for the purpose of securing help for 60,000 more of these children, who should be "made brave" again, and whose names were on the waiting list when the armistice was signed. This organization co-operates with a similar one in France, of which Marshal Joffre is head. The drive is on—and it costs only 10 cents to care for a child for a day; $3.00 for a month; or $36.50 to become a godmother or godfather. Such godparent chooses her own protégé—boy or girl, as she elects, from the lists at the organization headquarters, and is put in direct communication with the child through correspondence. The small contribution made supplements the tiny pension of 10 cents daily allowed each child by the French Government, but it is sufficient to keep body and soul together.

SUMMING UP THE EVIDENCE.

Many Paris People Have Been Called As Witnesses.

Week after week has been published the testimony of Paris people—people who have endured many forms of kidney, bladder or urinary disorders. These witnesses have used Doan's Kidney Pills. All have given their enthusiastic approval. It's the same everywhere. 50,000 American men and women are publicly recommending Doan's—always in the home papers. Isn't it a wonderful, convincing mass of proof? If you are a sufferer your verdict must be "Try Doan's first."

Here's one more Paris case. Wm. W. Dudley, 1729 Cypress St., says: "Some years ago I found it necessary to use a kidney remedy and as I had read about Doan's Kidney Pills, I used them. They proved to be satisfactory and permanently rid me of the complaint. I have good reason to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and advise their use to anyone troubled with a weak and lame back or irregular passages of the kidney secretions."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dudley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

USE PREVENTATIVES.

(Thrift Magazine.)

Loss of time, money and breath often can be prevented by the use of some simple, inexpensive measure. At all times, especially during days of influenza, you should never allow yourself to remain in a run-down physical condition. If attacked by disease while your resistance is low, you may pay for it with a long illness or possibly with life itself.

Most people think a doctor's only use is to be sent for in case of emergency, like a fireman, and be brought running with his pillbox in hand just in the nick of time to cheat the undertaker. Many a first-class funeral could have been prevented by a pill taken at the right time. Go to a doctor once in a while. Let him thump your chest, see your tongue, count your pulse and telephone your lungs. Neglect of health is a common form of thriftlessness.

SUMMER COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell, of Butler, Tenn., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose."

SATISFY!

—what the deuce does that mean?

It means that NEW thing in a cigarette, that does for your smoke-hunger exactly what a drink of cold water does for your thirst!

To satisfy, a cigarette must do more than please the taste—it must "touch the smoke-spot."

That's what Chesterfields do. They let you know you are smoking—they SATISFY.

And here's why—Chesterfields have body. The finer, silkier leaves of TURKISH have been properly blended with several varieties of the best DOMESTIC tobaccos, famous for their full-bodied flavor.

SATISFY is something that no cigarette, except Chesterfields, can give you—regardless of price. Because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend.

OUR WARD IN THE PACIFIC.

It is refreshing in these days when Georgia, Arizona, Alabama, New Mexico exercise the public mind to a large extent to learn from the statements of the Philippine Mission that 8,000,000 of the 10,000,000 population of the Islands live on their own farms, and that 91 per cent. of the houses and lands of the urban population is owned by the natives. At the same time while the United States is shocked at the inventory of its own wealth, it is pleasant to learn that the Philippine government holds about 39,000,000 of the 40,000,000 acres of timber lands in the Islands.

The population of the Philippines is more homogeneous than that of the United States. Seventy per cent. of the population above ten years of age can read and write, which is pretty good when one considers that the percentage of illiterates in Louisiana is 29 per cent; 22 per cent in Mississippi, and over 20 per cent in Georgia, Arizona, Alabama, New Mexico and South Carolina. The comparison shows that there are conditions among our own States which make it imperative that there should be educational awakening, lest some of these localities might have the damaging suspicion cast upon them as was the case in the Philippines.

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

that they were not capable of self-government.

The Philippines are very proud of their colleges and schools, which have been in existence for hundreds of years, their University of Santo Tomas being 25 years older than Harvard. Fifty years ago there were 841 schools for boys and 833 schools for girls in the Islands. The present Governor-General Francis Burton Harrison declares emphatically that the Filipinos "are entitled to be free from every government except of their own choice."

Since August 29, 1916, when the Philippine Commission was abolished and an elective legislative body was chosen by the voters the progress has been "straight ahead." The actual attainments in the last three years prove beyond the shadow of argument that a substantial government is already in existence. Just as all countries have been making "sidewalks" of their streets and roads, with the result that there are 7,000 miles of as good macadamized roads as there are in the world on the Island.

A WORD FOR THE 'GATOR.

(Charleston News and Courier.)

The alligator is another good citizen whose usefulness is overlooked; for killing alligators has been from time immemorial a popular pastime. In Louisiana it was found that, when the alligators were killed off, the muskrat multiplied and destroyed the levees; also the cotton-mouth moccasin, the garfish and the carp increased wonderfully. Whereupon protection was given to alligators. This lacertilian, to give him his correct family name, has probably kept the muskrat away from the South Carolina Coast, for the muskrat is unknown on the coast. If allowed to multiply the alligator will make inroads on the carp, the garfish and the cotton-mouth, all undesirable members of our fauna. The sum total of the alligator's evil doing amounts to this: He catches a dog now and then; once in a while pulls a hog or bites the tail off a cow, for sundry stump-tailed cows along the Atlantic Coast Line right-of-way have met misfortune in this way. The cow, the dog and the hog are out of place when the alligator can get at them; but at best very little of this happens.

TIME TO CUT OUT SOB-STUFF

Now that Germany has signed up and the President has broken away from Paris, isn't it high time to cut out a good deal of this over-indulgence of fear concerning unemployment, the high cost of living, Bolshevism, I. W. W.'s and other terrors that try to camouflage their lawlessness—and make this business of reconstruction hum?

There is no minimizing the worth of the achievements in our national affairs, and those of the world; but the human mind cannot forever dwell upon the tragedies that cost ten million lives in battle, thirty million injured, and thousands made blind or insane—and others made poor, and some made rich.

How about to-morrow, as well as yesterday? Industrial facts are worthy of, and must be considered; There are practically no business failures occurring in the country; the bank clearings are running about seventeen per cent. over last year's highest totals. Even if prices are high the cost of labor and the prices of foodstuffs furnished a firm foundation for the condition. Cotton is no longer in the dumps, and it, like wool, is in active class. Steel slumped and suffered a real bump after the war, but the human members of that industry, including the "men on the job," ought to be able to take protracted vacations for a time as the result of their era of prosperity. The railroads are lagging in making purchases of steel, and the Director General is following the footsteps of his predecessor in having arranged for two-thirds of a billion dollars from Uncle Sam to take up the deficit, or slack of a year's operations, and to provide for essentials in betterments and replacements of the properties. But someday this muddled muddle occasioned by Government operation will end; and it will be a gala day for the Nation when private owners of railroads resume charge, and restore decrepit roadbeds and rolling stock, and get the great steel highways back to normal condition. But while the railroads are down in low speed, the automobile business is on high, and the steel men are finding a pretty good output for their goods in that direction. Even house-building is on the gain, unemployment is not half as serious as some agencies would have one believe. Our conditions contrasted with those that existed abroad, should produce optimism of the keenest kind. Raw materials and machinery are lacking in the war zone, and millions of men are idle in consequence, while the discontent that rages is causing further industrial stagnation because workmen are demanding new systems in industry, that will furnish them a little taste of the democracy that they have been dying for.

Ye Gods, we are a lucky race, and our debts and debtors can easily be forgiven, for the United States is richer than it was before the war; its manhood and womanhood have been rejuvenated through the short season of struggles that they have endured. There are no longer British syndicates owning our flour mills or German syndicates owning our breweries, or British and German syndicates financing our railroads as in the olden days. Uncle Sam is now the chief banker of the world; and all civilized nations take their hats off to us.

It is time to feel a little cocky over our position in the affairs of the universe. Incidentally every community that whoops it up in giving their returning soldiers a big welcome, and then goes on the way, battling for the peaceful conquests of the future and forgetting the sob-stuff, will make progress towards the realization of a world free for Democracy's sake.

It's the Truth That Hurts.

"FAKE" ASPIRIN WAS TALCUM

Therefore Insist Upon Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Millions of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold by a Brooklyn manufacturer, which later proved to be composed mainly of Talcum Powder. "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," the true, genuine, American made and American owned Tablets are marked with the safety "Bayer Cross."

Ask for and then insist upon "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" and always buy them in the original Bayer package which contains proper directions and dosage.

Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacturer of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. (adv-tf-F)

She loathed her husband! She loathed him because he was bad—because his "double standard" of morality made his marriage vow a farce.

Yet she was his "wife"—sold to him by a vengeful father—bound to him by law until death should end her woes.

Then love, forbidden, came to her—wedded her in her heart to an honest man, her mate. And the world and the law cried "wanton!" and covered her with shame.

Based on Hall Caine's famous novel, directed by Hugh Ford, and played by an all-star cast, including Katherine MacDonald, Theodore Roberts, Milton Sills, Jack Holt and Fritz Brunette. A picture for every woman with a heart to love—every man who respects a woman—Come!

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

A telegram was received here by Mrs. Olive Taul Terwilliger, from her husband, Capt. C. B. Terwilliger, announcing his arrival at New York from overseas. Capt. Terwilliger was stationed for eleven months at Base Hospital No. 69, located at Sabenay, France. His message stated that he would arrive in Paris in a few days.

Mr. F. S. Elder, of Paris, has received a message informing him of the arrival at an Eastern port of his son, Thos. Elder, who has been in the service overseas for several months. Young Elder was in the engineering branch of the service for Uncle Sam. Before enlisting he was in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville railroad at this point.

Private George L. (Tommy) Frakes, who arrived from overseas some time ago, has received his honorable discharge from the service, getting his papers at Camp Zachary Taylor last week. Private Frakes is a guest of friends and relatives in this city. He was a member of Co. P, Twenty-second Engineers Battalion overseas, in which a number of other Paris boys were his comrades. He likes the army so well that he has re-enlisted, and will report in August at headquarters for assignment to duty.

RELIGIOUS.

The Mission Band of the Christian church will meet on the lawn back of the church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, weather permitting. Mrs. McClanahan will be present.

On account of the Chautauqua which is occupying the Opera House, there will probably be no union services of the Paris churches Sunday night, although this has not yet been definitely decided.

The work of redecorating the interior of the Paris Christian church is progressing rapidly. The contractors say they hope to have it finished in time for the congregation to resume worship in the building about the first of August.

The Endeavor Society of the Christian church will hold its meeting Sunday night on the lawn in the rear of the church, the weather permitting. The subject will be, "Our Denominational History and Principles." Come and see who the leader will be.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH CALENDAR.

WON'T SWAP THREE-CENT STAMPS.

According to an announcement made recently by Postmaster J. Walter Payne postal cards that sold at two cents each and envelopes that sold at three cents each previous to July 1, will be taken in exchange for one-cent postal cards and two-cent stamped envelopes. Three-cent stamps will not be taken in exchange for stamps of other denominations.

Parties holding three-cent stamped envelopes and two-cent postal cards must present them at the local office during the month of July if they wish to have them redeemed. Postmaster Payne stated yesterday that there had been a rush during the first days of the month by parties who desired to have their cards and envelopes exchanged, but that a great deal of trouble had been occasioned when it came to the matter of demanding an exchange of three-cent stamps, as the postal regulations will not permit of that being done. The purchasing public is asked to remember this and act accordingly.

INTERESTING OIL NOTES

By mutual agreement the oil exchanges in Paris, Mt. Sterling and Winchester will discontinue open call sessions during July and August. They will resume the sessions again in September.

The Co-operating Land & Development Company, of Lexington and Paris, is moving a rig to Bowling Green, where the company is planning to start a drilling campaign in the Western Kentucky fields.

The Great Northern Pipe Line Company is pushing with all possible dispatch the building of the ten-car spur, loading racks at the mouth of Hell Creek, in Lee county, and will soon be prepared to handle the increasing output from that territory.

Mr. Wm. R. Blakemore and Mr. Charles P. Mann, president and sales manager, respectively, of the Lee-Kent Oil Co., are in Beattyville making an inspection of the company's holdings and attending to some business matters for their company.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Bourbon Oil & Development Co., the following Board of Directors was elected:

Wm. T. Soper, Carlisle; E. R. Sampson, Ewing; Josiah Coons, Lexington; M. A. Pruitt, Millersburg; O. L. Bartlett, Maysville; S. H. Booth, Little Rock; W. H. Thurmond and Solon Eastland, Danville; I. E. Payne, Eubanks; C. L. Bell, J. L. Soper, Ellis Garrison, T. J. Flora and Jas. H. Moreland, Paris. The Board elected as Executive Committee T. J. Flora and J. L. Soper. The following officers were elected: President—C. L. Bell; vice-president—W. T. Soper; secretary-treasurer—E. R. Sampson; assistant secretary-treasurer—Mrs. Jas. H. Moreland.

SUMMER NECESSITIES IN FURNITURE AT REDUCED PRICES

A big reduction on all summer goods, such as refrigerators, oil stoves, ovens, porch shades, porch furniture, porch rugs, etc. All this season's goods, and of the best makes, but must be sold to make room for fall goods—the big reductions during July.

JOYS OF CAMP DANIEL BOONE TO BE SHARED BY THE GIRLS

The joys of Camp Daniel Boone are not alone for the boys. For three weeks the bathing beach, diving stand, row boats and tennis courts will be occupied by girls. The days will be packed full of good times from the time the sun first peeps into the tents in the morning until late in the evening. And the fun will be safe fun—made so by scientific tests of the water, careful leaders, adequate protection on the river, medical attention if necessary, and most of all the co-operation of the girls themselves. Classes in Bible study, nature study, health talks, etc., will make the fun-filled days profitable ones as well. Expenses will be very reasonable.

From July 29 to August 4, the camp will be under the direction of the South Central Field Committee of the Y. W. C. A. All High School girls Kentucky and Tennessee are invited. From August 9 to August 23, the Lexington Y. W. C. A. invites all girls over sixteen years of age to spend their vacation at the camp. Applications should be made at once. Further information and application blanks may be secured from Miss Helen Hutchcraft, both phones 33.

TEACHERS OF BOURBON COUNTY SCHOOLS ELECTED BY TRUSTEES

The following teachers, recently elected at a meeting of the Board of Trustees held at the office of County Superintendent of Schools J. B. Caywood, in the court house, will have charge of the county schools for the ensuing term:

Clintonville—Mrs. Frank Bedford; Bethlehem—Miss Mary DeBell; Dudley—Miss Elizabeth Donnell; Hutchison—Miss Jennie Link; Monterey—Miss Julia Calnan; Deaver—Miss Bess Sweeney; Cane Ridge—Miss Mary Ross.

The rural schools of the county have not yet named their teachers for the coming school year. These will be selected at a later meeting of the Board of Education.

DEATHS.

WIGGINS.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. William Wiggins, who was badly burned at the home of its parents, near Millersburg, several days ago, died Monday and was buried in the Millersburg Cemetery, Tuesday.

PUCKETT.

Elva Ann, aged one year and three months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Puckett, who resides on the Winchester pike, near Paris, died at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, about noon Wednesday, after a short illness.

The funeral was held in the Paris Cemetery yesterday morning at ten o'clock, with services conducted at the grave by Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, pastor of the Paris Baptist church.

BIRTHS.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bohon, of Decatur, Ill., are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a daughter, who was born July 8, in Decatur. Mrs. Bohon was before her marriage Miss Catherine Thomson, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. M. G. Thomson, who conducted the Bourbon College in this city. The little daughter has been named Ida Louise, in honor of Mrs. Thomson.

ORDINANCES BEING VIOLATED

Among numerous other ordinances on the city's books is one prescribing a certain penalty for tacking cards or advertising matter on the telegraph, telephone and fire alarm poles in the city. Yet this is being done every day. The poles are at present being used for the purposes to which billboards and deadwalls are usually devoted. But, as between friends, there seems to be no way to stop the practice. Perhaps if the city and companies would have the poles neatly painted it would have a tendency to make the violators of the ordinance ashamed to deface the poles in the way that is being done now.

JOHN FOX, JR.—AN APPRECIATION.

(Louisville Times.)

"Kentucky has lost the man who might have been her chief historian. So far, at least, he had been the leader of that school of novelists who sought to interpret the beauties and the mysteries of the Blue Ridge section of the Commonwealth—abounding in material for the story-teller, as it abounds in potentialities of material wealth and resources of human value. John Fox loved his mountains and their quaint people; and the mountains rewarded him with the richness of a life that he loved, while the mountain people bestowed upon him in their turn that confidence and trust that a primeval people alone can feel and are so slow to express.

"But though John Fox is gone from among us, his work, like all other good work, lives after him; and what he taught the world of the Kentucky mountains never can be forgotten. His work has grown to a great fruition to the advantage of the simple ones he loved; and it is now known that the mountains can furnish more than feuds and assassinations, hatreds and prejudice. Not alone the world of letters mourns this man's death—he was far more than a novelist; he was a great humanitarian."
